July 2015

Volume 1, Issue 2

President's Message

We had a good month with demos at Lake Ridge Care Center and Sturgis Park in Buffalo, Foley Fun Days, Fairhaven Old Settlers Days, and the Bien Aime Farm in Loretto. We have information on a few prospective dancers that expressed an interest in learning square dancing with us and also referred some to other square dance organizations near where they live.

We also had a good turnout of dancers at the Minnesota State Square and Round Dance Convention in Rochester with 16 dancers attending and Abe calling. Thanks to Marlys and Mary for all their work on our behalf in the "Sewing Room."

I would like to thank Marlys and Larry Wilson for all of their work the past year in publishing and disseminating the newsletters, creating the ads and dance fliers, and making sure that they were sent out. They have agreed to do the ads again this year. Thanks again for your continuing support of the organization.

We have four demos scheduled for the month of July, so please try to participate in as many as possible. "Live Lively – Square Dance!"

Recipes

Clara Slaight, Ruth Anderson, Betty Curran, and Sandy Pearson continue to work on the cookbook. They are looking for more appetizers, beverages, and salad dressing recipes. Be sure to include your name on the recipe so that they know who to contact if there is a question.
